

Year 4 Spring Term

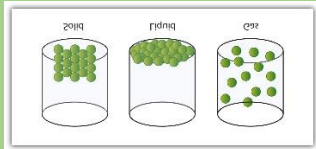

Science

Sound

Sound is a form of energy made from vibrations which travels in sound waves from the source to the ear.

States of matter

All materials can be sorted into solids, liquids and gases. Materials can change state.

History

Invaders and settlers

The Romans left Britain around 410CE.

The Angles, Saxons and Jutes collectively, the 'Anglo-Saxons', settled in Britain.

The Anglo-Saxons settled in Britain and occupied it until the Norman conquest at the battle of Hastings in 1066CE.

Geography

Scandinavia

The three Scandinavian countries are: Norway, Sweden and Denmark.

What are their capital cities?
What is the climate like?
What animals live there?
How are these countries similar and different to Britain?

Art

Art that tells a story.

How can art tell a story?
Different forms of art that tell a story: textiles, ceramics, paintings etc.

The Bayeux tapestry tells the story of the Norman conquest of the battle of Hastings in 1066CE.

Jackie Gale is a contemporary artist who tells a story through her textile art work.

DT

Curing a preserving food

Curing and preserving food is a popular method of food preparation in Scandinavia.

Curing food is the process of adding salt to food in order to preserve it.

How does this method preserve food?
How else can we preserve food?

401-410 CE the Romans withdraw from Britain. Anglo-Saxons begin to settle.

597 CE Saint Augustine introduces Christianity.

793 CE the Vikings attack Lindisfarne

871 CE Alfred the Great becomes King of England

1066 CE the battle of Hastings. The Normans defeat the Saxons.

